

RESOLVING CONFLICTS: PEER TO PEER MEDIATION

Workshop, seminar or session title:

“Lecture on gender-based violence”

DIDACTIC PLAN

Before the lecture, we could watch the great videos about conflict and some about gender-based violence made by the students.(This was another preliminary task they had to carry out beforehand)

Aims:

- Recognise gender-based violence as a real and serious problem.
- Reflect on gender equality.
- Identify the causes of gender-based violence.
- Think about solutions to this serious problem.

Contents and activities:

Lecture about gender-based violence by a Family Court Judge, Miguel A. Filgueira Bouza. He talked about real cases of gender-based violence and how they were solved. He tried to explain the causes and to make the audience think if they could have been avoided. Through the question from some people in the audience, we could compare the situation of gender-based violence in the different partner countries.

Timing:

One hour and a half

Resources and materials:

Videos made by the students.
