

DIDACTIC PLAN

Europagymnasium Bitterfeld
Workshop Week 24.10.-28.10.2016

WORKSHOP, SEMINAR or SESSION TITLE:

Communication Workshop 1

AIMS:

- Using a method called "learning by teaching" (one or two german students do the workshops by themselves as "teachers")
- To teach communication theory to students and teachers
- Practical use of theoretical knowledge in roleplay situations

CONTENTS:

- Communication theory: basic scheme of communication
- Communication theory: 1st and 2nd axiom of communication by Paul Watzlawick
- Communication methods: "Controversy"
- Practical part: Controversy

ACTIVITIES:

At first a lecture was hold about the basic scheme of communication and the most important axioms of communication (Paul Watzlawick) by two german students. Facts, schemes and information were written on the whiteboard and flipchart. Then the "controversy" method was explained: what it is, how to do it and why you need it.

Then the students had to use this knowledge: Two groups were built to have a controversy pro/contra.

TIMING:

½ hours theory, ½ hours practice
