

RESOLVING CONFLICTS: PEER TO PEER MEDIATION

Workshop, seminar or session title:

“Prevention on gender-based violence”

DIDACTIC PLAN

Aims:

- Recognise gender-based violence as a real and serious problem.
- Reflect on equality and gender equality.
- Identify the causes of gender-based violence.
- Think about solutions to this serious problem.

Contents and activities:

Through a game of role play the students could reflect on equality in general and gender equality. The activity consisted of: they had to imagine that a nuclear bomb was going to be thrown and there was only one small shelter for few people. They had to discuss the qualities needed (given in the cards) to be accepted in the shelter and decide who deserved to be saved. Once the game ended, they discussed if all of them had the same opportunities and if it was fair or not. After that they discussed about the gender equality.

Timing:

One hour and a half

Resources and materials:

Power Point slides, cards for the role play.
