

Workshop in Civitavecchia, Italy: Feedback from Finnish students ( 11 answers)

What was good, what did I learn during the week in Italy?

- I learnt something new about entrepreneurship and how to develop a product. (6 answers)
- It was nice to speak English and to learn new things about different cultures. (6 answers)
- I learnt to work together with people I had never met before. (5 answers)
- I improved my teamwork skills (5 answers)
- I got new friends (2 answers)
- I started to think about the entrepreneurship in a different way. Maybe it could be my thing in the future. (2 answers)
- It was nice that we also had some spare time together
- The food was good

What didn't quite work as I had imagined?

- The timetable. Nothing ever happened when it was due to happen according to the timetable. (8 answers)
- We didn't always know what to do in the workshops because we didn't get precise instructions. (8 answers)
- I was quite disappointed that on the last evening we didn't go bowling or do anything special. Instead we just ate pizza, there was nothing special about that. (4 answers)
- I had problems in communicating with the others in English because some of the students had quite poor language skills. (3 answers)
- Staying in a hostel.
- We had too early mornings.